

the art of inspiration

Evocative Mediterranean Paintings

Ilana Richardson's Open Studio events are already a legend: visitors enjoy meeting the artist and love the affordable prices. Over two weekends in May, Ilana shows her latest vibrant watercolours and prints. Light and warmth radiate from her work, inspired mainly by Greece, Italy and France.
Open: 6/7 & 13/14 May, 11am-5pm and by appointment.

Ilana Richardson
175 Ramsden Road
SW12 8RF
020 8673 3111
art@ilana-richardson.com
www.ilana-richardson.com

Bespoke Pieces of Art

The Master Chocolatier Paul Wayne Gregory is now using his medium of chocolate to create bespoke pieces of art. His latest piece 'Endless' can soon be viewed at www.paulwaynegregory.com in the art gallery. "Endless is so simple but yet complicated to construct, it is somewhere between here and there but seems like it's always been here." More about Paul Wayne Gregory can be found on his website.

Paul Wayne Gregory
020 8679 5509

Battersea Contemporary Art Fair

A must-see for anyone interested in print, sculpture, photography and painting, this event showcases the work of 150 established and up-and-coming artists. Open 6-9pm on Friday evening 12 May (with drinks and live jazz), and from 11am-5pm on Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 May. Entry £6, concs £4, children under 16 free.

Battersea Arts Centre
Battersea Old Town Hall, Lavender Hill, SW11
www.bcaf.info

CHELSEA FESTIVAL

16-25 June 2006

Box Office 020 7351 1005 www.chelseafestival.org.uk

Courtney Pine Artur Pizarro

Carl Davis Julian Joseph

Parma Opera Ensemble

Vikram Seth Mark Padmore

Boothby Graffoe Norma Winstone

Dhoad Gypsies of Rajasthan

Plus extensive Children's, Talks and Free programme

BAC
venues

Exhibition and Function Space

BAC Venues has two unique spaces to hire for Fairs, Exhibitions and Parties

www.bacvenues.org.uk

020 7326 8211

BAC Venues, Lavender Hill, Battersea, SW11 5TN